STAT

ARTIQUE APPEAREI ON PAGE

NEW YORK TIMES 13 September 1985

Anti-Sandinista Denies Charges

By SHIRLEY CHRISTIAN

Special to The New York Times

DALLAS, Sept. 12 — The military winners," not because of forced recommander of the largest Nicaraguan cruitment. rebel group said today that he knew of "I won't say that sometimes an iso"no evidence" to support accusations that the rebels frightened young Nicathat the rebels frightened young Nicaabuse," he went on. "But this has not raguan men into joining them by killbeen a practice. I have no evidence of ing Government officials and their what Mr. Chamorro said." sympathizers in towns and villages.

Edgar Chamorro, a former member of the political directorate of the group, the Nicaraguan Democratic Force, made the accusation in an affidavit made public this week. The written testimony is part of a World Court case in which Nicaragua has accused the United States of aggression.

'This Has Not Been a Practice' tions of the Nicaraguan Democratic leading role in gathering nongovern-Force from Honduras, said his group mental support for the Nicaraguan was growing because the Nicaraguan rebels and advising them on arms purpeople saw the rebels as "potential chases.

Mr. Chamorro has repeatedly criticized the way the Central Intelligence Agency dealt with the rebels between 1982 and 1984 and has complained of abuses by the rebel forces, but he has continued to oppose the Sandinistas.

Mr. Bermúdez is among anti-Communist rebel representatives from eight countries attending a conference of the World Anti-Communist League The rebel commander, Enrique in Dallas this week. Maj. Gen. John K. Bermúdez, a former colonel in the Singlaub, a retired Army officer who Somoza-era Nicaraguan National heads the Anti-Communist League and Guard who now directs military operatits United States affiliate, has played a